

Job Title	Investment Analyst
Details of Skills Experience and Qualifications required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bachelor’s degree in business management, Economics, Mathematics, Computer Science Engineering or any quantitative related discipline • Deep understanding of the capital market in the United Kingdom, North America and Africa • Investment management experience or equivalent course taken to acquire knowledge • Excellent communication and presentation skills • Willingness to embark of short travels to assess potential investment around the world
Job Description	Responsibility Conduct thorough financial analysis of potential investments, including evaluating financial statements, market trends, and economic conditions to assess profitability and risk. Develop and maintain complex financial models to forecast investment performance, utilizing techniques such as discounted cash flow (DCF) and comparable company analysis (CCA). Monitor and evaluate the performance of existing investment portfolios, tracking key performance indicators (KPIs) and making recommendations for adjustments as needed. Prepare detailed reports and presentations on investment opportunities, portfolio performance, and market trends to inform decision-making by senior management and clients. Collaborate with cross-functional teams, including portfolio managers, research analysts, and project managers, to align investment strategies with KAMLTD's business objectives. Conduct due diligence on potential investment opportunities, including assessing legal, regulatory, and compliance considerations. Stay informed about market developments, economic indicators, and industry trends to provide timely and relevant insights for investment strategies. Support the development of investment strategies, contributing to asset allocation decisions and identifying new investment avenues to enhance portfolio diversification.